Reporting CCC-1099-A's to Producers and IRS

Approved by: Acting Associate Administrator for Operations and Management

1 Overview

A Background

IRS Code, Section 6050J, requires that CCC, as a lender of money secured by property in connection with a trade or business, file an information return reporting any full or partial acquisition of this property. This requirement applies to CCC when either of the following occurs:

- CCC acquires an interest in any property in full or partial satisfaction of any debt
- CCC has reason to know that the property in which it has a security interest has been abandoned.

B Purpose

This notice provides procedures to State and County Offices for:

- printing CCC-1099-A's for producers for calendar year 2009 loan collateral acquisitions
- distributing CCC-1099-A's to producers in January 2010
- transmitting CCC-1099-A loan collateral acquisition data to KC-ITSD
- purging prior year price support loan forfeiture, settlement, or abandonment data from the IRS history file.

C System-Generated CCC-1099-A's

System-generated CCC-1099-A's will be used for reporting both original and corrected transactions to the producer.
